TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 6, 1864.

Progression.

The world progresses, and the nations are gradually becoming liberalized in sentiment, and basing their greatness more and more upon the idea of freedom and intelligence in the people.

Russia, one of the Earth's most despotic powers, recognizes this as the basis of true and lasting power, and her serfs are becoming enfranchised as the consequence of the fact that her monarch has an enlightened understanding of the necessities that govern the present hour. It is remarkable, too, that at this very time the Confederate States are engaged in rebellion and revolution, striving to accomplish the chimerical attempt to tear down a free government to build up a slave-holding republic—trying to act upon their new discovered theory, that Slavery is the only natural and safe institution to properly balance society, and be a true safeguard to government; while every civilized nation frowns upon the act, however much of secret sympathy several of the greater powers may feel for them, in thus making the attempt.

It is not long since the time was, when we would have scorned the idea that Brazil, slave-holding Brazil, would live to show any portion of the United States a lesson of progress. But so it is, and late intelligence tells us that Slavery is abolished in Brazil, and too at the very moment when Davis and his Confederacy are preaching a crusade against free institutions, and inaugurating the new history of a Southern Republic with Slavery as its chief corner-stone. Brazil could not have been far behind the Southern States in the number of its slave population, and if she has indeed, freed them all, as stated by the telegraphic dispatches, she has taken a step of the greatest importance, and that manifests a spirit that is in unison with the sentiment of the nineteenth century.

This is in itself a striking commentary on the course of the Southern States at the present time. They are struggling with a valor and desperation worthy of a better cause, to perpetuate Slavery and establish its supremacy, or destroy the Government.

The despotisms of the Earth are teaching lessons to the sons of the Huguenots and the Pilgrims; and the Catholicism of South America, that we have been too much taught to consider akin to evil alone, is teaching enlightened Christianity to the Protestant States of North America.

Items from South Boise.—From Mr. J. W. McBride, of Alturas county, or what is better known as the South Boise country, Idaho Territory, we gather some items of general interest that we give our readers. The quartz lodes discovered in this county are hundreds in number, and enough of them have been prospected and worked to render it certain that this will rival any portion of the Pacific coast in the richness of its mines and in the extent of the same, as soon as mills can be erected in sufficient number to offer the proprietors of ledges opportunity to test and work them. One five-stamp mill, owned by Carter and Company, has been at work during part of the summer and fall, and has crushed about five tons of rock per day with good results. It had crushed some 150 tons of Ada Elmore rock, with an average result of something near $100 per ton. It is now engaged in crushing rock from the Confederate Star ledge, which the owners thought would go as high as $150 per ton. For some time past arastras had been at work upon a number of ledges in this the Bear Creek District, and a substantial building was erected for a mill, running six arrastras by water power, and every ledge had so far shown good results upon being worked. The rock was much of it rich in silver—one assay had shown $225 in silver and $600 in gold per ton, but no efforts had yet been made to save the silver, though the mills would soon be prepared with the best apparatus to save both silver and gold. There is considerable trouble experienced from the fact that baser metals predominated. Messrs. Waddingham and McBride have 14,000 pounds shipped and on the way down, which they intend to have thoroughly tested, sending part of it to Swansea, Wales, if necessary, to secure a proper working and thorough analysis of their ore, and so be prepared to erect works to reduce it in the best manner at the mines.

A larger mill had arrived at Rocky Bar overland from Chicago, working twelve stamps, which will be running this month; and a Mr. Fox was going in with another five-stamp mill, to be erected in the same district.

Bear Creek District is some 80 miles north-east from Boise City, 30 miles south-east of Idaho City. Rocky Bar is a thriving place, with stores, hotels, &c. Some 300 persons will winter there, and some 600 in that camp. There were 2,000 miners in that county during the summer, and there will be as many another year.

The ledges are found in granite formation, in each district. Yuba District is thirty miles north-east of Rocky Bar. Comstock lately struck a good ledge here, eight feet wide and rich in silver and gold.

Volcano is thirty miles southeast of Rocky Bar, where there are good ledges and rich placer mines. Ledges are well defined and of solid quartz all through the country, average three feet wide, and some much wider; not so rich as a few Owyhee ledges, but perhaps larger in size, and able to furnish a reliable amount of good paying quartz. Boise and Owyhee offer great inducements for the investment of capital and will call thither a great and thriving population within a very short period.

Shooting Affray at South Boise.—Mr. Isaac Haines, of Boise City, writes, under date of Nov. 27th, that a shooting affray had taken place at Rocky Bar, Alturas county, Idaho Territory, in which Judge Beatty was shot by Dr. Terry. Beatty commenced the shooting, and was badly wounded; it was thought he could not live. Dr. Terry was acquitted.

A San Francisco merchant publishes a table of California distances in which it appears that "Paradise" is but fourteen miles from "Hell's Delight." So says the M[illegible].

Why is a greenback more valuable than coin now? Because every time you put it in your pocket you double it, and every time you take it out you find it increases.

Semi-Occasional Correspondence.

[illegible], Nov. [illegible], 1864.

[illegible]:

You have [illegible] been [illegible] over the glorious news. And Lincoln is really elected! Where now is your [illegible]? Where is your freedom of speech, with guarantees to every man the right to express his sentiments freely upon every [illegible] of slavery [illegible] that [illegible] a Divine institution. Where is [illegible] editor of the [illegible] publish as many lies as he pleases [illegible] neighbor, [illegible] didn't dare to tell the truth about Jefferson Davis, Esq., and [illegible] of the traitors of the North who are meaner far than [illegible]?

By the Humboldt Register Extra of November 10th, we are informed that the returns indicate that all the States have gone for Lincoln. I am afraid that New Jersey hasn't, and that Honest Abraham will not accept unless he gets every State.

Well, we sometimes have a little merriment away out here in the confines of the [illegible] Mountains. An occasion of this kind happened last Friday, at La Grande, when the news came in that every State saving New Jersey, Delaware and Kentucky had given its vote for the Railsplitter of Illinois. The people were perfectly jubilant and the town was illuminated.

A torch-light procession was formed, consisting of several hundred men bearing transparencies with inspiring mottoes, banners and torches. They were marched through the town, halting frequently to cheer the President, the Union and the [illegible] that have gone for the Union; after which they formed in front of Taylor's Hotel and short speeches appropriate to the occasion were delivered by Messrs. Stephens, Baker, Ryle, Taylor and others, during the delivery of which there was great enthusiasm manifested by the crowd.

During the day, a few individuals styling themselves Democrats had prepared an effigy of President Lincoln with the purpose of hanging and burning it in the middle of the street to make an exhibition of their devilish hate and [illegible]. Shortly after dark they erected a gallows improvised for the occasion in front of a low doggery kept by one of the Simon pure, in front of which doggery was spread out a large American flag, changed from the original by the words McClellan and Pendleton printed across the face, and disgraced by the doggery which is not found on the back of the original.

The sight of the machinery of execution made the Union men angry—I might say furious—and they swore that the effigy should not be suspended or burned in that town on that occasion. To their credit be it said, the respectable Democrats of the place discountenanced the cowardly and disgraceful act, while a few of the less reputable numbers (I will say leaders, for such men have led the party here, and elsewhere, since the sitting of the Charleston Convention, which was the precursor of all our calamities) swore they would hang and burn the effigy; it was theirs; they had made it and they had a right to do what they pleased with it; and made inflammatory speeches to the rabble of a dozen or so, who stood ready to follow. You will readily imagine that there was much anxiety felt about the result of all this: for had they attempted to carry their foolish threat into execution, blood would have flown freely in the streets that night. But the tripod gibbet was taken down about half past eleven o'clock, and the disaffected spirits shut themselves up in the aforesaid doggery and finished the night in Bacchanalian revelries. They will feel mighty mean, and natural, when they get sober.

We have no snow yet in this valley, although the foot-hills have been made white several times. The weather, although not so very cold, is not sultry. We have a stirring breeze much of the time. Sometimes a man must go the way the wind blows or not go at all.

A number of emigrants have settled here this season. They have nearly all secured land claims and intend to cultivate the soil. A few of them are in straightened circumstances, and our citizens should assist them through the winter; yet they will add to our material wealth and prosperity. Our bachelor friends have been improving the opportunities offered by the emigration for matrimonial alliances, and the Clerk of our new county has already issued several licenses to perpetrate. A friend of mine, being at Walla Walla when the pilgrims were arriving, thought that he might find his affinity among the sun-burned damsels. He approached one of the camps and introduced himself to the prettiest one he saw. She chatted freely and laughed bewitchingly. My friend bought the biggest water melon he could find and presented it to her. Feeling assured that he had made a decided impression, he then asked her if he might be permitted to go to see her when they got settled. The fair one whistled a while and then replied, "I haven't got no objections, if my husband thar wasn't."

A man by the name of Witherel, accused of stealing four mules on the Payette river in Idaho, was arrested on Friday last at La Grande; had a preliminary examination and was acquitted, because the crime was committed out of the State. I don't think that is good law; neither do the men who lost the mules. So they re-arrested the prisoner and started for the Payette with him; but will probably take him over the river [illegible] first, and we don't care, for it is generally believed that he has been engaged for the past two years in manufacturing and passing the brass and copper filings which have mingled with so much of the gold dust of this country. Yours, FARMER.

Oil Product of Pennsylvania.—A statement has circulated freely through the Eastern press, attributed to Governor Curtin, to the effect that the value of petroleum, at the wells, produced in 1863, was $[illegible],000,000, or $5,000,000 more than the value of the coal and iron mines of that State. The Philadelphia Ledger of September 30th, thus endorses this assertion:

"The petroleum produced in the State of Pennsylvania was sold at the wells for $36,000,000 during the last twelve months, and the iron and coal of Pennsylvania only produced $5[illegible]."

Mules by the Mile.—The Chattanooga Gazette states that between the point of Lookout Mountain and Bridgeport, down the valley of the Tennessee, are twenty-five miles of dead mules in one continuous string, the head of the first carcass lying on the "quarter-deck" of the one beyond him, and so on throughout the entire distance. The same paper says: "Just imagine a convulsion of nature of sufficient magnitude to bury these remains as they now lie, and fancy the feelings of a future Agassiz, who in his geological researches strikes either of the terminals, and attempts to exhume the entire snake."

Good Walking.—William McDermott, a newspaper carrier in New York, walked, "fair heel and toe," twenty-one miles lately over the Fashion course, in four hours and seven seconds, for a purse of one hundred dollars, which he lost by seven seconds. The crowd made it up by subscription.

The Grant Club of San Francisco, one thousand strong, had the ballots which they deposited at the late election printed on the finest white satin ribbon. On the back, printed in blue, was a representation of the fight between the Alabama and the Kearsarge.

A returned veteran of one of the Massachusetts regiments, upon entering a store in Worcester, lately, was asked if he had come home to vote the Democratic ticket. "Why," said the soldier, "I've been shooting Democrats for the last three years!"

A dog employed by the rebels to carry messages from one part of their lines to another was lately captured in front of Hancock's corps, and has been taken to Washington.

There were [illegible] 126 votes cast by the Nevada Volunteers at this Post, says the Camp Douglas Vedette, which were as follows: Lincoln, 121; McClellan, 5.

Thirty-seven thousand Fejee Islanders are now professing Christians. Thirty years ago these people were cannibals.

Important Canal.—The latest despatches from Virginia announce that the Dutch Gap canal will [illegible]. The object of this work is [illegible] gunboats [illegible] the James river [illegible] Butler was the first to divert from the [illegible].—S. F. Bulletin.

Sheridan's Cavalry Charge.—The special correspondent of the New York Times says of Sheridan's cavalry:

The grand charge made at four o'clock by Gen. Custar on the right and Gen. Merritt on the left, was magnificent in the highest degree. The charge was executed at a trot, and doubled up the flanks of the rebel army, [illegible] the broken and [illegible] across Cedar Creek [illegible] ordinary General would have remained satisfied with, but not so with Gen. Sheridan. An old dragoon himself, and knowing all the secrets of cavalry, he called the two brigadiers—Devin's of Merritt's and Wells of Custar's divisions. Bridges were promptly thrown across the creek. Clearing the bridges at a gallop, under a severe artillery and musketry fire, they charged the rebel infantry brigade which had been left to cover the trains and hold the strong position, and deployed on the crest of the hill south of Cedar Creek. This force was captured and scattered, leaving the whole rebel train a prize. The pike for four miles from Cedar Creek was blockaded with artillery, wagons, ambulances, &c. Our cavalry had nothing to do but to deploy as foragers and secure this captured property.

Scientific Sharpshooting.—Yankee inventiveness has always worried our Southern brethren, and is still terribly astonishing. The Richmond Examiner says:

Conceive a line of battle behind a breast work; each man squatted completely out of sight, firing over his shoulders, while, instead of exposing his head and hands to the advancing Confederates, he looks away from the enemy, and narrowly examines the stock of his own gun! Two little mirrors scientifically placed at the proper angle and attached to the stock, enable the soldier to see the sight on his barrel and all that comes within range without exposing any part of his precious body.

[illegible] Benjamin, of Bennington, Vermont, once a member of the 2d Vermont regiment, and who was reported as having died in battle, had put his letters and papers in the pockets of a man just breathing his last and then "skedaddled" to Canada, where he has lately turned up. His estate has been administered, and his friends have mourned over his supposed decease.

The rebel raider, Wheeler, is only 25 years old and very small. He is a ladies' man. At a ball in Carlisle, Pa., just before the war, he got tight, and becoming aware that the ladies were turning up their noses at him, he soliloquized, thus: "Wheeler, you're drunk! Wheeler, the gals are laughing at you! Wheeler, you'd better go home!" and he did.

The Russian Government encourages marriage among its soldiers, provides the couple with a house, supports them, rears their children, but takes away all the boys at a tender age and sends them to military garrisons, there to be trained for the army. There are 500,000 of this kind of soldiers now in the Russian army.

The French artillerists in Mexico have recently found, to their great surprise, that the angle of elevation used in France for their guns, for any given range, does not afford the calculated results; and have ascertained that this is owing to the diminished pressure of the atmosphere on the Mexican plateau. It follows that a cannon may serve as a kind of barometer for measuring altitudes.

It is related that in Cochin China, where grandees go to the play, the actors fare rather badly. If the great man does not approve of their performance, he waves his hand, and his suite immediately rush upon the unfortunate performer and belabor him soundly with their bamboos.

The Windsor (Canada) Papers publishes a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the post office in that town which numbers over eight hundred, nearly [illegible] the entire population of the village. These are almost altogether letters to skedaddlers from their friends in the States.

Mr. Merri[illegible], by his readings, has contributed over $7,[illegible] to the Sanitary Fund, and for the sick soldiers of the army. He gave his youngest son to his country, Capt. [illegible]—who fell at the battle of Chickamauga in the front ranks gallantly cheering on his men to victory.

Rebel [illegible] of Early's Defeat.—Yesterday [illegible]

[illegible]

It appears, from all that we can gather, that on Wednesday morning Early attacked Sheridan [illegible]

[illegible]

In the absence of official intelligence, this is the best account we can give of this affair. [illegible] Fisher's Hill.

This work of destruction goes on apace in the [illegible] valley. Barns and mills are burned to the ground wherever found, and everything that was left [illegible] is slaughtered or driven to Alexandria. But it is a notable fact, that whatever else may be destroyed, the stills that have flooded the valley with apple brandy are invariably spared. Here, we greatly fear, is the Iliad of all our woes. The enemy are far too smart to apply the torch to these Pandora boxes of all that is evil and iniquitous. * * * Apple brandy and not Sheridan's wretched infantry, or his boasted cavalry has blasted the fairest portion of Virginia, and brought intolerable shame on what was once the pick and flower of Lee's invincible army. In God's name let us have done with this accursed fluid and make quick work of it. * * * Whether there should be a change of commanders in our army, is another question, and one which we are not called on here to discuss.—Richmond Examiner.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE TO-NIGHT.—We have much pleasure in giving a hearty welcome to the distinguished Artists announced to perform for this night only in Portland. The celebrity of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean is world-wide, and their success for many years in America has quite equaled their English reputation. It is by the introduction of such superior tragedians that the Theatre becomes an Educational Institute, and we sincerely wish that Mr. Manager [illegible] may receive liberal encouragement, that he may be induced to engage these celebrated artists, to appear in a successful [illegible] of Shakspeare illustrations. The excitement in Victoria is very great upon the Keans' visit. Tickets selling for $5 nightly, and private boxes for $[illegible]. The charge here is only $[illegible], and to prevent any undue privileges, a drawing for the priority of seats will take place at 10 o'clock this morning.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.—Judge Deady presiding.—This Court met yesterday at the United States Court Rooms. On motion of W. W. Page, Esq., Wm. M. [illegible], Esq., was admitted to the bar and took the oath of office. The Court then announced to the gentlemen of the Bar that since the last sitting of this Court, the venerable and distinguished Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, Roger Brook Taney, was deceased, and that out of respect to his memory, the Court would adjourn until 10 o'clock of Wednesday, 14th inst. This is an adjourned term of the Circuit Court, and the principal business will be the hearing of demurrers in the actions concerning the Theatre Block, and the suit concerning the Old School House Lot.

ENCOURAGE ENLISTMENTS.—Aside from the lively interest manifested by the parties who have been enrolled in this city and mustered into the service, we cannot say there has been much disposition to see Multnomah's quota filled up rapidly, that the men might be in time with any other company, to report for duty. It is not on account of a lack of good disposition on the part of our citizens, but it is for the want of a move in the direction of raising funds for the encouragement of enlistments. Multnomah, the wealthiest county in the State, is behind all the rest in this respect, and it will be a reflection on our patriotism if the draft is suffered to fall on us, as it certainly will, unless the number called for are raised soon by volunteering. The recruiting office of W. S. Powell has been removed to No. 5, Washington street, (up stairs,) in Carter's new block.

WANT TO COME TO OREGON.—According to the reports we receive from below, by those of our citizens who have been on a tour to San Francisco; at least every fourth man in that "fast town" has an itching for Oregon. Very few Oregonians can find peace after they are known, until they become thoroughly catechised in relation to the distinct features of our country, and all former abhorrence of the "Web-footed race" settles down in a devoted wish to be "one of 'em." They look upon us in the same light that a hungry set of miners would view a returned party of "prospectors" who had "struck something rich." Very well, Oregon is good enough, and as it will more than likely be some time before it becomes a "played out" concern, we shall heartily welcome any Californians who may come to our shores, and make their stay as comfortable and profitable as possible.

THE FIREMAN'S ELECTION.—The election of the Chief Engineer and Assistants for the Portland Fire Department passed off in a very quiet manner yesterday and resulted in the choice of Joseph Buchtel for Chief, and W. H. Weed First Assistant, T. J. Johnson Second Assistant. The vote was as follows:

For Chief—Joseph Buchtel 165; Wm. B. Clark 14. Total 170.

For Assistants—W. H. Weed 98; T. J. Johnson 54; A. M. Sharkey 60; [illegible] Miller 41.

A box for Sanitary contributions was placed at the polls, into which $31.45 in coin, and $15 in currency, was deposited.

THE OREGON SOAP WORKS.—Mr. W. L. Higgins has lately constructed a new building on Front street, between Clay and Columbia streets, for the accommodation of his increasing trade, and for the better facilities of manufacturing. He has filled the place with a full set of large size boilers, and has every convenience for doing an extensive business. The soap of his manufacture has been tested by many of our citizens, and found to be the best in market, and the increasing demand for it is the best evidence that can be produced of its superiority. Mr. Higgins commenced business in his new establishment yesterday.

A NEW MILL ON THE COWLITZ.—The machinery for a saw mill on the Cowlitz river, has been recently manufactured in this city, at the Oregon Iron Works, and the first lumber was expected to be cut yesterday. The situation is about nine miles above Monticello in a cedar timber region, and it is thought our market can be well supplied with a good merchantable quality of cedar lumber from that quarter.

THE PROPELLER CELILO.—This little craft, which has descended the falls and rapids of the Columbia river, from Celilo to this place, finished receiving a new and more powerful set of machinery yesterday, made under the superintendence of Mr. Nation, and will soon be doing a lively trade at towing, freighting, etc., on the Columbia and Willamette, with Mr. P. C. Congdon as Master.

EUREKA THEATRE.—This elegant little place of amusement, which, since its occupation by Frank Hussey's Variety Troupe, has been crowded each evening by an admiring audience, was again filled to overflowing last night. Those who are fond of a good laugh can not do better than to invest in "Eureka" stock.

FINE HORSES.—Mr. Frank Ball, of San Francisco, sent to California by the steamer Sierra Nevada, four fine horses valued at $2,500. There was one span of sorrel carriage horses, matched; one fast pacer, and a single carriage horse, all the best that he could purchase in Oregon.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The Board of Directors of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company met at the office of the company in this city yesterday and elected Col. J. S. Ruckle President, and S. G. Reed, Esq., Vice President.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—We learn of a frightful accident which occurred to the mail coach of the C. S. Company, which left Canyonville for the north on Sunday morning, while crossing the Umpqua river at Rocky Point. Full particulars are given in the dispatches.

THE RIVER.—For two days past the Willamette has rapidly risen, and the amount of drift wood floating past the city yesterday shows that the high water has extended above us for a great distance. All the tributaries of the Willamette are very much swollen.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—A man by the name of Kinder accidentally shot himself, a few days since, when getting out of a small boat with a loaded gun, at Astoria. He lived but a short time after the accident occurred.

THEATRE.—The Box Office will be opened this morning at 8 o'clock, for the sale of tickets. The drawing for choice seats to take place at 1 o'clock precisely.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—Rev. Mr. [illegible] of the Christian Commission, will deliver an address at the M. E. Church in this city, on to-morrow evening, Wednesday, December 7th.

CLOSED.—The Portland and Milwaukie Macadamized Road, between the Bennett House and Milwaukie, was closed for repairs yesterday.

THE BROTHER JONATHAN.—We learn that the steamship Brother Jonathan will leave for Victoria and San Francisco at noon to-morrow.

SOIREE.—An evening soiree will be given at Mr. Birnbaum's Academy to-night, for the benefit of the pupils of the class, and their friends.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION.—The Ladies of the Christian Commission are requested to meet in the Vestry of the [illegible] on Tuesday, [illegible]

"A Slight Cold," Coughs.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a Cough or "Slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief. Military Officers and Soldiers should have them, as they can be carried in the pocket and taken as occasion requires.

Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock AND IODINE ALTERATIVE is the only remedy for invigorating a debilitated and broken down constitution.—Persons of scrofulous habit, suffering from impure blood, nervous trembling, impaired digestion, liver disease, lost vitality, should give this great blood purifier a trial. All rheumatic diseases, constitutional complaints and organic affections are radically cured by a steady use of this medicine. oct19d3m

The Old Man's Favorite.

Do you ask [illegible]
[illegible]

[illegible]

Oft on Oneida's [illegible] bridge,
Made of supple [illegible]
[illegible]
Like a bird [illegible] wind,
Fanny [illegible]

And she told me while her eyes
Filled with tears of childish [illegible]
That she would see Paradise
From her rocking resting place
Painted on the river's face.

That she saw the tall trees [illegible]
Bright-winged birds amid their bowers
And a river that did lave
Banks o'ergrown with fairest flowers,
And a sky more bright than ours.

Then she asked with such a smile
As an angel face might wear,
If she watched alone, a while,
She should see her mother there
Walking in the groves so fair.

When to please the child, I said
She should see mamma in heaven,
To that frail old bridge she sped
As if wings to her were given:
And—but look—you see 'tis riven!

Ah! you moan—your looks are wild—
Calm yourself, old man, I pray;
Fanny was an angel child!
And 'tis well she's gone away
To her Paradise so gay!

THE REBEL ALBERT PIKE AND HIS WIFE.—A letter from Little Rock (Ark.), October [illegible], says:

The home of this famous rebel organizer and leader of Indian regiments, still stands in this place a striking monument of the folly and downfall of its owner. It is still nominally occupied by Mrs. Pike, who, though now quite aged, still clings to it alone and in its desolation, to preserve it from the clutches of Federal confiscation. In its best estate the house was one of superb appointments externally and internally finished and furnished without stint of expense. It is now disordered and desolate; and the noble private library of at least 7,000 volumes has all been carried away, except some straggling volumes in foreign tongues, which the rude relic hunters could not read, and left behind; nearly all the splendid collection of engravings have disappeared, and a fine piano, organ and harp have been spared the same fate only from their ponderousness. Mrs. Pike is a woman of intense rebel proclivities, and has felt all the accumulated humiliations and defeats of her cherished cause as so many personal afflictions. Her reason, also, has been fast losing its supremacy, and she wanders vacantly about amidst the dreary wreck, seeming scarcely to notice anything that passes around her. Not many mornings ago she was found by those early in the streets running frantically about at daylight, en dishabille, endeavoring to rally the neighbors to resist an infernal plot, which, she said, Gen. Steele was concocting to massacre the whole city, and was even then whetting a large knife to execute. She will soon be sent through the lines by flag of truce to her husband, at Washington in this State. This gifted and erratic man is described to me by an officer who once met him face to face in a desperate cavalry charge, as a person of commanding dignity and force. He has a fine muscular frame, the voice of a stentor, and wears his hair at great length, reaching down to his waist. He sits his horse cavalierly, dashes over fences and ditches with a magnificent contempt, and as he rode at the head of his column, his long hair streaming in the wind, and his powerful voice urging them on to the charge, it is little to be wondered at that the superstitious imagination of the Indians regarded him as an oracle and a sort of demigod. It is easy to divine the source of the almost absolute power which he is said to have exercised among them.

A FEMALE GUERRILLA.—The Louisville Journal says:

One of the peculiarities of Berry's band of cut throats is the officer second in command, recognized by the men as Lieut. Flowers. The officer in question is a young woman, and her right name is Sue Munday. She dresses in male attire, generally sporting a full Confederate uniform. Upon her head she wears a jaunty plumed hat, beneath which escapes a wealth of dark brown hair, falling around and down her shoulders in luxuriant curls. She is possessed of a comely form, has a dark, piercing eye, is a bold rider, and a daring leader. Prior to her connecting herself with Berry's gang of outlaws, she was associated with the band commanded by the notorious scoundrel Captain Alexander who met his doom—a tragic death—a short time ago in Southern Kentucky.

Lieut. Flowers, or Sue Munday, is a practiced robber, and many ladies who have been so unfortunate as to meet her on the highway, can testify with what sang froid she presents a pistol and commands "stand and deliver." Her name is becoming widely known, and, to the ladies, it is always associated with horror. On Friday evening she robbed a young lady of Harrodsburg of her watch and chain. If the citizens had not so unceremoniously expelled the thieving band from the town, in all probability this she-devil in pantaloons would have paid her respects to all the ladies of the place, and would have robbed them of their jewelry and valuables. She is a dangerous character, and, for the sake of the fair ladies of Kentucky, we sincerely hope that she may soon be captured and placed in a position that will prevent her from repeating her unlady like exploits.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.—The Bank of England was born in just such troublesome times as those upon which we have fallen. It is the child of the English revolution of 1688. William Paterson, a shrewd Scotchman, of whom his friends said he had been a missionary, and his enemies that he had been a buccaneer, proposed the formation of a joint stock company, whose object should be to loan its funds to the Government. Parliament, accordingly, chartered the company, in 1694, under the style of the "Governor and the Company of the Bank of England." It had its capital stock of $6,000,000 (we reduce the pounds to dollars), all of which it might loan to the Government at 8 per cent. annual interest, and receive also from the Government $20,000 a year for expenses of management. The books were opened, and to the surprise of everybody, all the stock was immediately subscribed for. The Bank of England commenced operations by investing its whole capital in Government debts; in other words, it loaned $6,000,000 to the nation at 8 per cent., and was to receive $20,000 besides.

THE REBEL ARMY.—The Richmond Enquirer says:

Everybody in the Confederate States seems to be shouting at the same time that everybody else ought to be in the army, and still not one of the stubborn creatures heed the appeal. About one half of the cities old, "able bodies" are hiring up the other half and making them uncomfortable. Here's the way to [illegible] Let's all go in, from the President down to the humblest exempted wharf rat—John, women and children, and their negroes, throughout the length and breadth of the land. Now, done it, if you dare. Say when, and we'll all start at a given signal.

NO BIBLES WANTED THERE.—The Southern papers have found a new opportunity to [illegible] and [illegible] upon the Yankees. The New York Bible Society, it seems, recently sent sixteen thousand Bibles to the rebels in [illegible] army, and proposed to send enough more to make the contribution up to fifty thousand. This pious donation is not very thankfully received. The Savannah Republican is [illegible] it of the efforts of the early [illegible] to christianize the American Indians before beginning to exterminate them. Other Southern papers have their little jokes on the subject, and on the whole, although the rebels [illegible] books, nobody seems to get any thanks for their [illegible]

[illegible] PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of [illegible]

[illegible] Sept. 16, 1864.

[illegible]

EDWARD [illegible]

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, [illegible] STREET,
New York, August 2, 1863.

Dr. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully,
Mrs. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. C. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS ATTENDED this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or debility of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Which, [illegible] down by excess, weak by nature, or [illegible] the sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated [illegible] be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect; he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom and an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; [illegible] the medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For those diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. "TRY" it in the [illegible] and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible. In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates, of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is said to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, [illegible] until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process whereby he is enabled to dissolve a without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Dr. Booth of the U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty, that it was published in the Medical Journal and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1860, page 77).

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC,

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. The increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

Kendall's Amboline.

THE GREAT UNEQUALED PREPARATION FOR RESTORING, INVIGORATING, BEAUTIFYING AND Dressing THE HAIR!

Is a Stimulating, Oily Extract of Barks and Herbs. It will cure all diseases of the scalp and itching of the head, entirely eradicates the dandruff, prevents the hair from falling out, or from becoming prematurely gray, causing it to grow thick and long. It is entirely different from all other preparations, and can be relied on.

Put up in boxes containing two bottles—price, $1. Sold by all Druggists.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the Lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. It is WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, [illegible]

LE DOYEN'S

SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK

—AND—

IODINE ALTERATIVE

FOR THE

CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER, HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES, NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder, and urators of the kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate glands, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.
